BASIC VOTING LAWS	REGISTRATION RULES	KEY ID REQUIREMENTS SOURCES
	WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN WISCONSIN? You must be 18 years of age to vote. All voters in Wisconsin must be at least 18 years of age on the day of the election to be eligible to vote. Persons who are otherwise eligible to vote may register to vote at 17 years of age if they will be 18 by the next election. You must be a U.S. citizen in order to vote. Citizenship is documented through a U.S. birth certificate or a Certificate of Naturalization, but proof of citizenship is not required to vote. Green card or visa status does not qualify a person to vote in Wisconsin elections. You must reside at your current address for at least 28 days prior to the election. (You may register to vote as long as you will meet the 28-day requirement by the day of the election.) If you have moved to a new address within Wisconsin within 28 days of an election, you may be qualified to vote from your former address until you meet the 28-day requirement at your new address. If you have moved to Wisconsin from another state less than 28 days before an election, you are only eligible to vote for President and Vice-President in Wisconsin until you achieve the 28 days. NOT ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN WISCONSIN? You cannot vote if you are serving a felony sentence. If you are currently serving any portion of a felony sentence, including probation or supervision, you are not eligible to vote in Wisconsin. Once your felony sentence is complete and your rights have been restored your right to vote is also reinstated, but you will need to re-register. You cannot vote if you've been adjudicated incompetent. If a judge has specifically determined you to be incompetent to vote, you are not eligible to vote in Wisconsin. If you have been adjudicated incompetent, but not specifically incompetent to vote, then you are still eligible to vote. You are not eligible to vote if you have placed a bet or a wager on the outcome of the election	Wisconsin requires voters to present photo identification (ID) while voting. Accepted forms of ID include Wisconsin driver's licenses, U.S. passports, and U.S. military IDs. The following list of accepted ID was current as of May 2023. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Wisconsin Department of Transportation-issued driver license, even if driving privileges are revoked or suspended• Wisconsin Department of Transportation-issued identification card, with or without a photo• Military ID card issued by the U.S. Uniformed Services• U.S. passport book or card• Identification card issued by a federally recognized Indian tribe in Wisconsin (can be expired or unexpired)• Photo identification card issued by a Wisconsin accredited university or college, or technical college, containing the date the card was issued and a signature.
