

BASIC VOTING LAWS	REGISTRATION LAWS	VOTER ID LAWS
	To be eligible to vote in Idaho, you must meet the following requirements : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Be a U.S. citizen ● Be a resident of Idaho and in the county for 30 days prior to Election Day ● Be at least 18 years old before or on Election Day ● Have no felony convictions on your criminal record When registering to vote, Idaho requires voters to present proof of ID and proof of residency. To prove your identity you must provide one of the following : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Idaho driver’s license or state ID card ● Passport or other ID card issued by an agency of the federal government ● Tribal identification card If you register to vote after July 1, 2023 and your residence address does not match the record on your driver’s license, you must provide one of the following documents to your county elections office or at the polls in order to complete the registration process : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Any of the above photo IDs with correct residence address ● Current proof of insurance ● Deed of trust, mortgage, lease or rental agreement ● A property tax assessment, bill, or receipt ● A utility bill, excluding a cellular telephone bill ● A bank or credit card statement ● A paystub, paycheck, or government-issued check ● An intake document from a residential care or assisted living facility ● Enrollment papers issued for the current school year by a high school, or an accredited institution of higher education located within the state of Idaho. ● A communication on letterhead from a public or private social service agency registered with the secretary of state verifying the applicant is homeless and attesting to the applicant’s residence for registration purposes. 	Beginning July 1, 2023 all new voter registrations will need to provide one of the approved proof of residence documents in order to complete the registration process. When registering to vote, Idaho requires voters to present proof of ID and proof of residency. To prove your identity you must provide one of the following : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Idaho driver’s license or state ID card ● Passport or other ID card issued by an agency of the federal government ● Tribal identification card If you register to vote after July 1, 2023 and your residence address does not match the record on your driver’s license, you must provide one of the following documents to your county elections office or at the polls in order to complete the registration process.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Any of the above photo IDs with correct residence address ● Current proof of insurance ● Deed of trust, mortgage, lease or rental agreement ● A property tax assessment, bill, or receipt ● A utility bill, excluding a cellular telephone bill