On May 11, 2021, Governor Kevin Stitt signed HB2663, making the following modifications to Oklahoma's election laws: ● Moved the deadline for requesting absentee/mail-in ballots from 5 p.m. on the Tuesday preceding an election to 5 p.m. on the third Monday preceding an election. ● Added one day for in-person early voting in general elections (8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the Wednesday immediately preceding a general election; early voting previously opened on the Thursday preceding the election). ● These changes were scheduled to take effect on January 1, 2022 ● Statewide election dates ● June 28, 2022: Primary August 23, 2022: Primary runoff November 8, 2022: General election Polling hours: 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.	To vote in Oklahoma, one must be at least 18 years old, a United States citizen, and a resident of Oklahoma.[1] The deadline for registration is 25 days prior to the election. Voter registration applications are available at the County Election Board, post offices, tag agencies, libraries and many other public locations. Voter registration application are offered when driver's license are offered and when people apply for assistance at some government agencies. Once an applicant has been successfully registered, the county election board will mail him or her a voter identification card.	Oklahoma requires voters to present identification while voting. Valid forms of identification include government-issued photo IDs and county election board voter identification cards (which do not include photographs). Voters can present a document issued by the United States government, the State of Oklahoma, or a federally recognized tribal government. The document must include the following information: ● Name ● Photograph ● Expiration date that is after the date of the election
